Teachers are required to adhere to these regulations before, during and after the Pre-Final Round:

- ☐ I have sufficient English proficiency to understand the rules of the exam.
- ☐ I make sure that the students do not open any other browser tabs, programs, websites or windows during the exam. The students must only interact with the exam website.
- ☐ I make sure that the students do not use any other electronic devices (e.g., phones, calculators) or any information sources (e.g., notes, books) during the exam.
- ☐ I prohibit any communication or assistance among students during the exam.
- ☐ I agree to not give any assistance to the students before or during the exam.
- ☐ I agree to report any students who try to cheat before or during the exam.
- ☐ I confirm that I am not personally related (e.g., family members) to any of the students.
- ☐ I understand that the ICSC uses various methods to detect cheating in the Pre-Final Round and that cheating results in immediate disqualification.

By signing and sealing this document, I approve my eligibility as an independent supervisor and agree to all regulations mentioned in this document.
